The Increased Spirit Tax.

New York, 15 — Wholesale liquor from being interviewed by the reporter of the morning journal strongty disapproved the increased tex on still wines, which goes into effect on July first. Ergs & Son say, "It will drive the cheaper imported grades out of the market, and give an impetus to the manufacture of native California wine. The increase was scarcely anticipated by the trade, who regard it as having been imposed in Congress in the interest of California wine growers."

"Can California wine compare in quality with cheap European grades," was asked.

"No, sir, it cannot, for the reason that California wine growers do not give their wine time to mature, but turn it into money is soon as possible. However, as there are large atteks of European wines on the way out, importers have three muntil after at a tayway Asregards champagne, which is increased a dollar axasa. Whisky firms declare there is no panicky feeling in their tra e, notwithstanding the failures here and in Chainnati. More Jobs.

New York, 15 .- The Herald, Times, New York, 15.—The Herald, Times, Poet and other independent journals of New York, are considerably exercised over the prospects of another political jobbing organized by the legislature at Albany, out of the proposed new Croton agu duct. The Herald says: Political schemes are breaking out in this matter here and at Albany, which threaten as infamous events as the new ceuri house jobbery, and the delay in the introduction of the new squeduct bill is due only to their incompleteness.

SALICYLICA is known as a common score remedy, because it strikes directly and at Albany, which threaten as infamous events as the new court house jobbery, and the delay in the introduction of the new aqueduct bill is due only to their incompleteness.

St. Louis, 15.—H. F. Crocker, a notorious herse theef, suicided in a Tensajail a few days ago. He left a written statement that he was born of well connected parents, in Georgia, had been in Texas since 1873, and had killed three men and one woman during that time: regretted he could not kill two more men, who had injured him, and that being without moneyor friends he preferred death to a life of imprisonment. He asked that his body be thrown into the river, and that no word of his miserable end should be sent to his relations.

The Ballroads.

New York, 15.—The proposed leasing of the Wabash to the Missouri Pacific, or iron Mountain, is creating some discussion here. Business men are surprised that Gould, who regards the southwestern system as among the best rail-road properties in the United States, should consent to the additions of less remunerative lines. It is said he is not satisfied with the management of the Wabash, and looks to this method as a way to improve it. way to improve it.

Gortschakoff,

Baden Baden, I5.—The funeral of the late Prince Gortschakoff took place from the Russian chapel here yesterday. The physicians who attended Prince Gortschoff say there are enough grounds for suspicion that the Prince had been poisoned. The evidence of the Prince's mistress and his valet confirms the suspicions. In his will made on his death bed, the Prince requests the sushorities to suppress any inquiry as to whether he had been prisoned or not.
